

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR PUPILS AND FAMILIES

Approved by Audit Committee 12 May 2020

The purpose of this privacy notice is to explain how pupils and their parents'/carers' personal information may be used. We take your privacy seriously and you can find out more here about how we gather and use your personal data – that includes the personal data we already hold about you now and any additional personal data we might collect about you, either directly from you or from a third party. We will always take into account your interests and rights when processing your personal data.

When we say 'we', this means all the schools that belong to The Blessed Christopher Wharton Catholic Academy Trust.

Who processes your personal information?

Your school collects information about you and they make decisions about how and why it is processed. This means your school is the 'Data Controller'. The Headteacher acts as a representative for the school in carrying out the responsibilities of a data controller; they can be contacted at your school if you have any questions.

In some cases, some of your personal data will be processed by a third party 'data processor', such as the Government (this means that they handle your information on our behalf). This will only be done with your consent, unless the law requires us to share your data. When someone else processes your data for us, we make sure they are also handling it lawfully.

Why do we collect and use your information?

By law, we have to collect and use some of your personal data. We process it in order to obey laws such as child protection, safeguarding and welfare. We also have to use your personal data to fulfil our public task to provide an education.

We may also have a legitimate reason for processing your personal data, such as CCTV footage, in order to provide a safe and secure environment or to inform you of news and events. These are the reasons why we use your personal data:

For school admission purposes
to provide appropriate pastoral care;
to assess the quality of our services;
the promotion of our school and Trust;

to monitor and report on pupil progress;
to provide statutory services;
to safeguard children and young people;
to support teaching and learning

to communicate with parents and carers;
to assess how well the school is doing;
to comply with legislation and regulations;

What data is collected and how Much of the personal data we hold about you is provided by you; parents and pupils. Personal data may be collected and provided from other sources, such as the previous school attended, or health information on an Educational Health Care Plan, or a letter from the NHS with information about allergies and treatment.

The categories of personal data that we process include:

- Personal – e.g. names, date of birth
- Contact information – e.g. addresses and contact details and emergency contact details
- Characteristics – e.g. ethnicity, language, country of birth
- Attendance information – e.g. number of absences and absence reasons

- Assessment information – e.g. national curriculum assessment results
- Health and medical information – e.g. allergies, long-term conditions
- Information relating to Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND)
- Behavioural information – e.g. number of temporary exclusions
- Biometric – e.g. photograph used to for identification or for media purposes
- Financial information – e.g. payment records on ParentPay and free school meal eligibility
- Operational – CCTV footage
- Legal – e.g. mode of travel to school
- Safeguarding information – e.g. concerns raised by a member of staff

Special protection is given to certain kinds of personal data that is particularly sensitive. This is called ‘special category data’. This is personal information about racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or sexual orientation. The reasons why we use this type of data are:

Substantial public interest - the processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.

Vital interests - to protect the vital interests of any person where that person cannot give consent e.g. if they are seriously hurt and are unconscious.

Medical and health purposes – ensuring high standards of health care.

Social protection – the processing is necessary for safeguarding, child protection and welfare purposes.

Normally we won't need your consent to use your personal data but when consent is required, the school will provide you with specific information explaining the details and how the data will be used. Where the processing of your data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time. Details of how to do this are on the Consent Form.

How long is your personal data kept?

We hold personal data on past, present and future pupils and their families from the point that an application or request to start school is made through our school or the Local Authority.

Your school does not store personal data indefinitely; most personal data is only stored for as long as is necessary to complete the task for which it was originally collected. Some personal data such as child protection information is retained for 25 years. Personal data relating to pupils and their families is stored in ways recommended by the Information Management Toolkit for Schools.

Will your personal data be shared?

We control access to personal information, giving access only to people who need particular information to do their jobs, and only when they need it. We do not share information about you with anyone without consent, unless the law and our policies require or allow us to do so. We sometimes share information through a legal duty to do so, such as safeguarding and child protection information.

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the Government's Department for Education (DfE) as part of statutory data collections; the school census and early years' census. To find out more about the pupil information we share with the Department, for the purpose of data collections, go to <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>.

We use various third party IT tools in school which help us achieve our objectives and ensure that pupils' best interests are advanced. We use software to track and report on attainment and progress. We use financial software to manage school budgets, which may include some pupil data. We use systems to record personal data including information about parents and carers for emergency contacts. We also use your contact information to keep pupils, parents and carers up to date about school events. We also share some of your personal data with the following groups of people to fulfil our duties as a school, such as:

We will only transfer your personal information to a country which the EU Commission has decided ensures an adequate level of protection for your personal information, or where we have put in place our own measures to ensure adequate security as required by data protection law. These measures include ensuring that your personal information is kept safe by carrying out checks on our partners and suppliers.

When we use third party service providers, we disclose only the personal information that is necessary to deliver the service, and we have a contract in place that requires them to keep your information secure.
