Newsletter

12th February 2021

You have supported your children with home learning as much as you can.

You have carried on working—at home or in your workplace.

Parents

You have continued to look after your family - make meals, tidy, clean, wash, iron, etc etc ...

You will have been worried about money and the future.

You will have reached out to hold in your heart the people you can't hold in your arms.

You planned and prepared for all the children coming back in January—and then, with little notice, planned and prepared for teaching remotely.

Very quickly, you learnt new skills to video, record, upload and give feedback online.

Staff

You are missing being in school and being with your class.

You are also supporting your own children with their home learning.

You have kept in contact with the children through SeeSaw, emails and phone calls.

Children, Parents, Staff

You are all amazing. Keep strong. We will get through this together.

Live online learning sessions coming soon!
New paper home-learning packs available!
