 We hope everyone had an enjoyable break and we are looking forward to a safe, successful and enjoyable Summer term.

Covid -19
If your child should test positive for Covid -19 on a weekend, please contact us on 07394 917 124 or 07395 935 373 and leave a message stating your child's full name, class, when symptoms began and the date your child received their positive test. Thank you in helping keep our school safe.

IMPORTANT
European citizens living in the UK are reminded that they need to apply to the EU settlement scheme before 30 June 2021 if they have not already done so.

If you and your family arrived in the UK after 1988 you must apply in order to protect your rights to carry on living and working in the UK. All EU citizens and their families will need to apply.

The scheme is free and can be done online at this address <https://www.gov.uk/settled-status-eu-citizens-families/applying-for-settled-status>

EU citizens must apply by the deadline of 30 June 2021. Please do not delay.

For help and support please see: www.bradford.gov.uk/your-community/brexit-and-the-settlement-scheme/access-support/

YEAR 6 CHILDREN
Children starting at St Bede's & St Joseph's in September 2021, please see attached message from their Transition Team.
All of the Secondary Schools will have sent information about their visit and transition arrangements directly to parents, please keep checking your emails for this information.

Well done to Zahara in year 6! Her design has been chosen to become a poster celebrating Refugee week. You will see this poster all around Bradford, and watch out for the news item in the Telegraph and Argus!
